before anaking statements about us. Yours truly, John P. Otis, Pastor Elba Park Methodist Episcopal We do not wish to do the Northern Me-after; we are here to save souls, "We thank thee for that word." It sufficiently refutes what was said about " political organthodists injustice. Their statistics in the South, like their Conferences, are much "mixed." Even so accurate a person as Mr. Otis is only "nearly," and "about," and "something like" certain of his figures. We learn that in 1871 there were only tersburg, fourteen in Norfolk, and twentythree in Fredericksburg. Bishop Simpson hardly represents the Virginia cities. The three hundred thousand in "the South," we fear, is only "something like" the correct census. Perhaps some Conferences north of Mason and Dixon's line are reckoned in this count.
